Auction:

On the Thursday night of the competition there is traditionally an auction where the competing teams can be bought. The team have the right to buy themselves at a fixed price of R3,000.00 before the bidding starts on the floor.

Teams that wish to purchase themselves on Thursday nights auction may do so before hand to help streamline the auction process. Please indicate on the team entry form on the next page if you would like to do so. All auction monies are payable by Friday 13th March to prevent issues on Saturday.

The auction winners are decided by adding the best three of the four individual stableford scores of the team four ball from Saturday together.

In the event of non payment the person or group of people will forfeit any auction prizes. This prize money will revert back to the club.

The auction splits are determined as follows:

- 40 % to the winning bidder
- 25 % to the second
- 15 % to the third
- 20% to the club
